2. The proposals concerning Chapter IX scheduling, which were forwarded by the Chapter IX Subcommittee in September 1958 for NIS Committee consideration, were discussed at the 16 December NIS Committee meeting. The following is a quotation from the NIS Committee minutes of that date:

The OBI staff had studied these proposals and concluded that Chapter IX production requirements should be maintained at 8 per year, and that it appeared feasible to modify the intelligence requirements of Section 19 for both Chapter I and Chapter I Annual so as to markedly reduce research and production effort going into them.

The Committee decided to refer this matter to the Chapter IX Subcommittee for further examination.

3. Further details of the NIS Committee discussion concerning changes in Section 19 requirements may be obtained from your respective NIS Committee representatives.

4. At the 16 December meeting, the NIS Committee also rescheduled the Chapter IX for NIS 96 (Australia) from January 1960 to February 1960. The date of submission of NIS 96 Chapter IX contributions to D/WG was
